

This tick bite prevention tip is almost unbelievable-a- BUBBLE!

Showering or bathing within 2 hours after being outdoors can prevent Lyme disease. Getting in the tub or shower gives you time to do a thorough tick check and the water may wash off any unattached ticks.

